A different tale...

A lamp family characterized by a vintage touch and a project meant to explore unknown grounds.

A collection that, drawing its inspiration from 50's and 60's italian rationalism, strikes an absolutely contemporary look. Velasca lays the foundations for a new chapter; a chapter that joins stories of artisan expertise to design history.

Attitude and grace

A chandelier with a sober and discreet elegance. Devoid of any concessions to decorations, hence capable of resonating both in classic and modern contexts. It combines strength and grace, with coexisting smooth and angular lines, just like Frida Kahlo, to whom it's dedicated. Frida is handcrafted with rigorously blown glass, a feature which grants it with imperfection and beauty.

Gisele dances.
Gisele doesn't improvise her moves, she studies them, repeats them, perfects them.
The main feature of the collection is, beside the preciousness of its components, the ease to create new shapes and dimensions.
An innovative design, despite the appearances, which combines technology with aesthetic reasons: the entire structure is created in laser-cut steel and the lights are dimmable leds.

The different models are obtained by arranging the rhombuses over ring-like elements of different diameters and remind of top level goldworking. The modules, set ajar, look like precious gems variously mounted just like bracelets, rings or parures. The choice of color nuances and metallic finishes is thought to always obtain combinations that glorify the preciousness of the artifact.

Arctic Light

A linear metallic structure supports an exuberant game of intertwined ice sculptures: hand-made in Venice, these elements in blown glass, each one different from the other, find their strong point in their imperfection. Masculine and feminine. Minimalist and baroque. A cold light, full of reflections, well suited for contemporary and sophisticated locations.
